

Introduction

Hello, I am Vansh Garg, a Computer Science student at the University of Delhi and an active member of the LEO Club. Alongside academics, I have interests in digital media, graphic design, branding, and community building.

I believe in modern times just doing social work is not enough, right communication of towards the correct set of audience is the key to changing mindsets

Why I Want This Position

I am applying for the position of Social Media Head because social media for Leo is not just for posting content and showing of our work, it a tool to spread awareness and create an impact.

LEO Club already has greates initiatives and greates ground work, this work deserves an audience, public reach and visibility.

This role aligns with my interests in design, content strategy, branding, and audience engagement, while also allowing me to contribute to the club's service.

Project-Specific Strategies

Project Parindey

(Menstrual Health, Sexual Health, Gender Inclusivity)

Objective

Normalize conversations around topics often surrounded by stigma.

Initiatives

- "Myth vs Fact" educational series.

Collab with project Laathi : A series where we burst menstrual myths with elder ladies who have lives with them through their entire lives and know more than any book can tell

- Anonymous question submissions answered through posts and stories.

Young women are really shy and hesitant to ask questions due to socaital judgement. Creating a safe space for them to ask questions without the fear of being judged.

- Real stories and experiences

Project Laathi

(Supporting Senior Citizens)

Objective

Create emotional connection between students and senior citizens.

Initiatives

- Short Interviews documenting their journeys and advice.

Key points like - 3 Things you wish you tell your 18 year old self, Things only experience teaches but social media misses

- “Stories”

Each individual has their own story, and we would love to make a place where they are heard.

Project Dhruvtara

(Education for Underprivileged Children)

Objective

Show education as transformation rather than charity.

Initiatives

- Student progress stories.
 - For dhruv tara we only show our Drives, we should show more progress, how our students were before we taught them vs now
 - Before vs After learning journeys.
 - Volunteer teaching experiences.
 - interviews of members who volunteered as teachers.
 - experience, Stories and their valueable learning.

Project Vit Vichar

(Financial Literacy)

Objective

Make finance accessible and actionable for students.

Initiatives

- Budgeting and saving challenges.
 - Quizzes about financial concepts
- Student-focused finance guides.
 - Budgeting a big part of student life and the goal of "Simplifying Money" fits appropriate for them.

Vision

My goal is not simply to increase posting frequency, but to make every project more visible, relatable, and impactful.
